

Music Adds Satisfaction Through Expression

Mr. Lane "The first mistake I ever made."

A quartet accompanies the studying of the Enlightenment

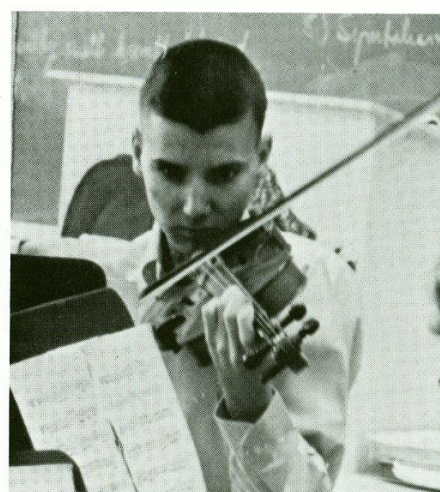

The Orchestra

The Orchestra this year made fantastic progress. They practiced for concerts, music contests, and various demonstrations along with music they simply enjoyed playing. Under the direction of Mr. Dennis Lane and Mr. T. Russell, they participated in a program of Baroque music study.

This year was a special one for the graduating seniors since they were the original orchestra from grade school. The Orchestra promises to continue growing and becoming an integral part of W.H.S.

Pixie Martin, Grace Heller enjoy the music.

Darryl Harmon skips over another difficult part.

Isaca Stern concentrates on a moving part.

Don Mitchell explains to Linda Larson the basics of turning a page