

Home Economics Teaches Essentials

Alluring scents oozed out of the Home Economics Department this year as students prepared everything from lasagna and egg foying to baked Alaska. The girls demonstrated that foreign foods add excitement and variety to an everyday meal by writing term papers on foreign cooking and sampling many recipes themselves.

Pants suits, school outfits, and party dresses were among the wide variety of clothes cut, pinned, and stitched up by the sewing class this year. Also covered in Home Ec. were the subjects of family relations, alcoholism, dating, and marriage which better prepared the girls for the challenges of tomorrow's homemaker.

Mrs. Calgren, Home Economics 10, 11

Shirley Rudolph unwinds after a long day.

Cindy Payton serves some "goodies".

Sue LeSueur and Taffy Carlson marvel at the effectiveness of the ripper.

Mrs. Calgren shows Wendy Narr and Donna Bergman the "easy" way.